

Nowhere in the Bible is the church referred to as a building. Although, in casual conversation we often describe the buildings where believers meet as churches, technically, the church is the people and not the facility. These people are "called out ones" from this world, having organization and existing as a living organism as the "body of Christ" (1 Corinthians 12:27).

Our focus is to give glory to God by making disciples for Jesus Christ locally and throughout the world, and teaching believers how to live as Christ would have them live (Matthew 28:19-20).